ACICIS' Business Professional Practicum (BPP)

Placing well-rounded interns within Jakarta-based institutions

What is ACICIS?

The Australian Consortium for 'In-Country' Indonesian Studies (ACICIS) is the longest running provider of in-country Indonesian study programs for Australian students and the primary mechanism through which Australian students pursue study in Indonesia for academic credit.

From small beginnings as a facilitator of accredited in-country Indonesian language study, ACICIS' program offerings have grown to include semester-long and six-week professional practicum programs in a range of disciplines, including journalism, development, business, law, and international relations.

ACICIS is a consortium of twenty-five Australian member universities

What does the BPP offer host organisations?

Via a careful selection process, ACICIS aims to provide Host Organisations with excellent interns with prior practical experience in the business, marketing or voluntary sector. BPP students can assist your organisation with:

- ◆ Compiling desk reviews which may be of interest to the your operations in Indonesia;
- ◆ Assisting in the design and editing of web material;
- ◆ Editing and maintaining an organisation's visual and/ or digital archives;
- ◆ Research assistance and data collection;
- ◆ Field visits to one or more of the Host Organisation's partners;
- ◆ Assisting with media and communication strategies.

How to participate as a Host Organisation

- ◆ By hosting one or more ACICIS BPP interns in your business, or;
- ◆ Via in-kind support through the provision of speakers, networking events and/or venue support, or;
- ◆ Through tailored sponsorship packages.

(including all of the Group of Eight) as well as overseas centres-of-excellence in the field of Indonesian and Southeast Asian Studies, such as SOAS at the University of London and Leiden University.

What is the BPP?

- ◆ A six-week intensive academic and vocational study program for high-achieving upper undergraduate Australian and international Business students;
- ◆ Students undertake two weeks of intensive language learning and industry-led seminars on the Indonesian business sector;
- ◆ Students then complete a four-week industry internship placement with a participating Australian or Indonesian business institution;

Sponsorship Packages

ACICIS is seeking proposals from Australian and Indonesian businesses interested in supporting the development of the BPP through a range of sponsorship packages. Packaging arrangements may include:

- ◆ One-off or ongoing financial contributions to ACICIS Indonesia's BPP program, or;
- ◆ Scholarships and/ or travel grants provided directly to BPP students.

In turn, ACICIS will acknowledge your support through the inclusion of your business logo on our site and promotional materials; acknowledgement of your support throughout our BPP program documents; and, where appropriate, the allocation of an intern/s at your business in Jakarta.

For sponsorship enquiries, please contact ACICIS' Resident Director, Ms Elena Williams at acicis.indonesia@gmail.com
